Mrs Johnanna Cronin is in Car-son looking after details that are de-terminative of title to approximately 12,000 acres of potash and oil lands lo uted in Fish Lake valler, shout eight miles from Coaldale, and twen-ly-five miles from Mina. She first became interested in the Fish Lake valley country three years ago through search for potash deposits. Many thousands of dollars have al-ready been spent on exploration work on the live thousand odd acres of iand located for potash. The presence of oil in the field was made by Mr. Starrs, the noted chemist of Hel-ena, Mont, who was making potnsh tests for Mrs. Cropin, James S. Arnold, a millionaire off man of Decatur, Ind., is one of Mrs.

mian of Decatur, Ind., is one of Mrs. Cronin's associates in both potash and oil interests. Another associate and the attorney is United States Senator Walsh of Montana Homer D. Lower, personal representative of Mr. Arnold, made an examination of the oil lands recently, and discovered traces of oil on the surface. His report on the property was no favorable that all arrange. was so favorable that all arrange-ments for development have been made. A rig is on the way and it is expected that drilling operations will be started within the next thirty

The demands for lands in the Fish Lake valley has not been confined to Mrs. Cronin and her friends. Contests on some of the potash tracts have been fought in the land office and the general land office. A short time ago when the lady visited the district she discovered that half a dozen parties had jumped her claims and were doing location WORLNE Rests, Refreshes.
